Seventh Edition

!Announcements!

We added some new items to our Etsy shop this past week. We now carry Mulberry wood chew sticks, pompoms in various sizes, colors, and types, and craft sticks for creating rat toys.

VET RECOMMENDATION

This week's recommendation was mentioned to us by THREE different people.

"Everyone in the office was extremely kind and considerate... Dr. Kevin...was so sweet and you could tell she truly cared." - Victoria

"Dr. Scoggin is our vet too, she's been seeing our eclectic cast of rats for 8 years and we love her! And the prices are good. There's another vet there who doesn't often see rats, Dr. Behrmann, but she's seen ours a few times and performed a lumpectomy on our almost 2 year old girl and did an amazing job!" - Jenny

"They did two lumpectomies on my Marie... After care they were available sun-sat anytime" - Amanda

This Week's Deal

Receive priority on POTL for any of the litters being offered in this newsletter when you adopt one of our older rats with your baby rat(s).

To take advantage of the deal, just let us know which older rat and which babies you would like.

Health Tip

Avoid baskets with holes or gaps in them for decorating your cage. Those cutouts in baskets are a danger for rat feet, which can get stuck and cause dislocation or breaks.

A liner may seem like a good solution, but baskets or bins are often preferred by rats who want to get away from the warming effect of a normal hammock. Lining them makes them just as hot as their other bedding. It is better to find items that have no cutouts in the sides or bottom, only handles at the top to hold them up.

As we draw near to Halloween time, keep in mind that this goes for "spiderweb" shaped plastic decor as well. All those spiderweb cutout parts can pose the same risk.

We all want a fun and creative cage for our rats, but we should always examine each item placed in the cage with the mindset of "Is there a way my rat could get hurt on this?"

POTL ANNOUNCEMENTS

POTL = Pick-of-the-Litter

We offer first pick on litters to our newsletter list as our way of saying "Thank you" for subscribing. If you would like to reserve any of the babies listed in this newsletter, you will need to first be an approved adopter. POTL reservations always go first to approved adopters with their Disclosure & Agreement forms completed in addition to the application.

We are offering a bonus incentive to anyone willing to adopt at least one of our older baby rats listed on our website or Facebook page in addition to their pick from the litter. POTL will be exclusively available to Newsletter participants from now until some time on Thursday, Sept.6th. I will be posting to my Facebook page and website the babies not yet reserved as of the 6th.

The pricing here is for first pick. The babies will go down in price as they get older. We also have additional litters that will be available next week for POTL, including our hairless litter. We will also be setting a date to pick babies in person if we have enough to choose from around 9/15/2018.

If anyone has any questions, please feel free to ask. I am most readily reached on Facebook (www.facebook.com/squeakinpups)
